H.A.B.S. SURVEY NO.

CAL-1665

History: Built in 1832. Rancho Agua Caliente, 2 leagues granted to Don Fulgencio in 1834. Name derived from bountiful warm springs in foothills which was ancient Indian watering place and a popular resort until earthquake of Oct. 21, 1868 wrecked adobe buildings. Acquired by A. A. Cohn who rebuilt most buildings now standing but sold to Leland Stanford before occupied.
